September 11, 2022 Sunday Worship, 10:30 am

Text: Genesis 6:1-22

Title: Noah's Flood

Synopsis: God saw that human evil was out of control. So, God brought a flood on the Earth to destroy everything alive under Heaven. But Noah was a good man. So, God established a covenant with Noah. God commanded Noah to build a ship to board his family and two of each living creatures to preserve their lives during the flood. After the flood, God set a bow in the sky to remind Noah and us that God will never again forsake God's creation with the flood waters. We ask God to help us to be ever mindful of God's promise so that we might honor our covenant with God.
