About Wayfarer

KnoxVan Events wants to once again invite Artists and Artisans in the local community to join Knox in a celebration of art! This year with COVID rules relaxing a bit more and indoor events once again allowed, we are looking forward to making this year's "Wayfarer Exhibition - exploring our neighbourhoods" both an indoor and outdoor exhibit.

The event would be open and free for our artists, neighbourhoods, other churches and larger communities to participate in either as a submitting artist or as a visiting patron for the day of.

This year we would like to explore additional types of artists and artisans and expand on the success of last year.

Please read on to see what and who we are looking for this year!
