NEWS & NOTES

Vodcast Series: "What I Wish I'd Known Earlier" (6 Episodes)

Some lessons come the hard way—but they don't have to. This series shares honest, funny, and faith-rooted truths we wish someone had handed us sooner—letters worth reading before life gets too complicated.

Episode 2 - "Your Past Is a Mess. That Doesn't Mean You Are."

We've all got chapters we'd rather skip. But what if the stuff you try to hide is the exact thing someone else needs to hear? This episode is about owning your story without shame, and learning how even the messy parts can lead to something honest, beautiful, and real.

Fall Sermon Series: "Letters I Wish I'd Read Sooner"

September 7 - October 12, 2025

Paul's letters aren't just ancient words—they're like notes from a mentor who's been through the fire and found God's grace. Over six weeks, we'll unpack these letters, filled with honest wisdom, encouragement, and truth about forgiveness, prayer, and keeping faith alive.

They're the kind of lessons we all wish we'd learned earlier, but they're still perfect for today. Let's open them together and see how they speak to our lives.

Knox Worship & Music: Try • Listen • Grow (September - November 2025)

With our organist's retirement, we're taking a thoughtful look at how music and worship serve our life together. Each Sunday this fall, our Minister and Worship/Music Director will blend traditional elements with a few small, time-boxed "tries" (e.g., a new chorus, a key/tempo adjustment, a global song, or a brief instrumental). Not every week will feature something new, and we won't cover every style—but across the season we'll listen, learn, and keep what helps our congregation pray deeply and welcome widely.

Your part:

- Sept 21st and 28th: complete the 3 to 4 minute survey (paper in pews).
- Any Sunday: leave a quick comment at the listening table.
- Nov 16: come to the congregational conversation (60–75 min) to help set Keep / Try / Tweak priorities.

Thank you for leaning in with patience, creativity, and outside-the-box imagination—while honouring the traditions we cherish.

Mini-FAQ:

Are we changing everything?

No. We're adding small, time-limited pilots alongside our traditional core.

Will we test every style?

No. We'll sample a representative mix, not the whole universe. Please suggest ideas!

How do decisions get made?

A short-term Working Group gathers input and reports Nov 23rd to the Board & Worship Team with Keep / Try / Tweak recommendations.

How do I give feedback?

Fill out the Sept 14th/21st survey, stop by the listening table, use the email, and join the Nov 16 conversation.
