Updates for the Congregation

The Knox Board Chair,
Susan McAlpine, be at Knox on Sunday,
November 16 for Stewardship time.

She will have a few quick updates for the congregation after worship.

Hope to see you there!

Partnership Working Group Forming

Under the strategic goal of becoming partner ready, Knox is excited to be forming a small working group together with University Hill.

The mandate for this team is easy: to meet regularly for a cup of tea or coffee, and to engage in good conversations about the life, work, needs, and dreams of each congregation. From these conversations, we hope some ideas and opportunities will emerge -- which will help us define and strengthen our partnership for the future.

This group will report to the board, but will decide on its own meeting schedule and processes. There's no end date identified, but we expect it will be 3 ~ 6 month commitment.

If you're forward looking, a creative thinker, &/or excited about the potential for our UHill partnership, please connect with Rev. Richard or Susan to chat!

All hands are most welcome to join in! It usually takes about 3 hours, but if you are only able to join for part of that time we would be pleased to have you join in!
