Notice of Special Congregational Meeting

A Special Meeting will be held on Nov. 1st after the worship service.

The Minister Search Team will be proposing a ministerial candidate for the role of 'Minister of Congregational Growth & Diversity'.

As there will be a Motion requiring a vote, this will be an 'in-person only' meeting.

Our Board Chair will also be providing updates on various other projects.

The meeting Agenda, and any other required materials, will be forwarded shortly.

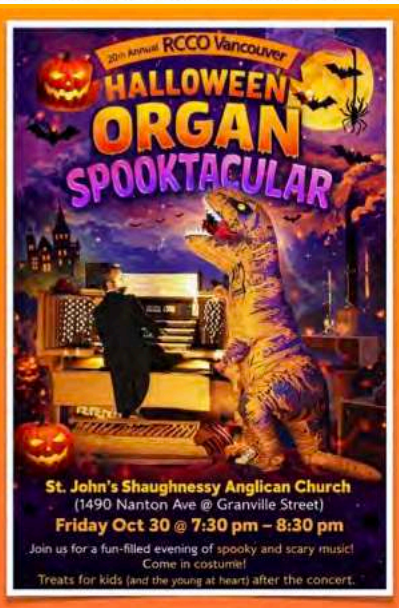
KNOX TRIVIA

Knox has a book of remembrances were congregation members shared their stories of wartime. Do you remember when that book was compiled?

Last Week's Answer:
"The Cloud of Witnesses" was a tradition that began with Rev. Joan McMurtry in 1988. They were originally hung from the rafters of the church, hanging over the centre aisle and up into the balcony.



The RCCO 20th Annual Hallowe'en Concert

Friday, October 30 • 7:30 pm
St John's Shaughnessy Anglican Church,
1490 Nanton Street

Celebrate Hallowe'en with an evening of exceptional organ music! Gilles Parenteau, whose career includes composing for CBC Radio and Television, brings his innovative approach to the King of Instruments in a spectacular live performance blending organ, orchestral, and percussion elements.

Visit the RCCO website for event details and information about the performers. Registration is free, with admission by donation.

Reservations are held until 7:15 pm; after that, seating is subject to availability.
